WHAT'S ON YOUR BALLOT – and what it really means

U.S. House representatives

Represent us at the federal level, advocating for the people in their district. Duties include drafting and passing federal laws.

Secretary of state

Oversees elections, grants new businesses their charters and maintains state records.

Statehouse representatives and senators

Represent us at the state level. Write and vote on bills, which are drafts of possible laws.

Treasurer of state

Manages the state's finances and assets. Invests public funds and distributes tax dollars to state and local governments and organizations.

State comptroller

Pays the state's bills, pays state employees and creates an annual financial report for the state. Distributes county, city, town and school tax dollars.

Marion County sheriff

Oversees the jail, serves criminal warrants, protects county government buildings and maintains the sex offender registry.

Marion County auditor

Manages the county's money, pays city-county employees, distributes taxes to government agencies and manages property tax deductions and credits.

Marion County recorder

Maintains public records, including documents about the sale of properties such as mortgages and deeds.

Marion County assessor

Assesses, or evaluates, the value of homes and businesses. That value determines what you pay in property taxes.

Clerk of Circuit Court aka Marion County clerk

Collects money related to court cases, keeps records for the Circuit Court and serves as the secretary for the Marion County Election Board.

Township trustees

Run assistance programs to help residents with rent, utilities and other needs. Manage township-owned property and create the annual township budgets.

School board members

Set policy, hire and fire superintendents and approve budgets. Set a vision for their districts.

Constables of Small Claims Court

Provide security in courts, serve official court orders to residents, can make arrests and can hire deputies to help carry out their duties.

Judges of Small Claims Court

Make decisions about personal injury, property damage, landlord-tenant disputes and civil issues that involve $10,000 or less.

Be ready to answer “yes” or “no” to two public questions on the ballot. Voters’ answers could lead to changes in the state constitution.
